Desired Position Senior/Lead/Principal Frontend Architect

Summary After graduating as a Computer Engineer Navy Ensign upon completing Naval High School and Naval Academy respectively, I served 6.5 years on various assignments as a TR Navy Officer both domestically and under command of NATO and UN. Soon after started master, I shifted my career into research, design, and development of UX & Frontend, whilst literally retiring from Army. Besides being happy to be involved in any phases amongst product to IT infrastructure, feel much more comforted when focusing on architectural interface and cognitive experience behind it in regards to assure end-to-end service quality.
